■ "Talal Abu-Ghazaleh... A Man from the Future" by Dr. Jawad Al Anani to be Launched Soon

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG. Global) will be hosting the launch of “Talal Abu-Ghazaleh: A Man from the Future” book, by HE Dr. Jawad Al Anani in a special ceremony in September 2019.

The 189-page publication tackles, in a scientific and analytical method, and on the basis of a set of references in business administration, creativity, economy, psychology and sociology, a number of critical issues: where does creativity come from? Did the Palestinian “Nakba” (Catastrophy) affect the success of Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh and his expansion towards globalism? Why did Palestinian companies and enterprises seem to achieve even greater success after the Nakba?

What is the relationship between home and the individual formation and development with his success? That is in addition to the important question: what about the future of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global which is interconnected with the name of its founder and Chairman?

The seven-chapter book sheds light on Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh’s personality, key persons who enriched his life, his negotiation capabilities and skills, ideas and opinions on major public issues, as well as his futuristic visions and readings on a universal level.

The launching date and place will be announced soon.

The Authority’s accreditation comes in line with its previous recognition of Cambridge Certificate which Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global) has previously offered in cooperation with Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) – University of Cambridge.

Decision No. 1772/2019 issued by PAAET stipulates that the conformity of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International Diploma in IT Skills with Cambridge certificate in terms of goals and requirements for the qualification of teaching and training faculty members in the Authority is proven’.
