Abu-Ghazaleh Wins OSCAR ‘Most Prominent Arab Scientific Personality of the Year 2020’ Education Award

AMMAN - HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, founder and chairman of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), won the OSCAR Education Award as "The Most Prominent Arab Scientific Personality for 2020". The award contest was organized by the Human Development Training Center (HDTC) in Dubai, the UAE.

The selection of winners was based on a six-day survey conducted by the Center, where Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh received the highest number of votes of more than quarter of a million voting participants from 70 countries.

The Center announced that the winners will be virtually honored on February 17, 2021, in a ceremony that gathers a host of high-ranking personalities.

The voting targeted four categories; the Most Popular Speaker in 2020, the Most Widely Circulated and Influential Videos, the Most Effective Educational Toolkit and a Personality who will be Remembered.

It is worth mentioning that the Human Development Training Center in Dubai, started its training activities in 2013, covering many countries around the world including the United Arab Emirates (UAE), the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (KSA), Egypt, Turkey, Malaysia, Korea, Singapore, Spain, Germany, the UK, Italy and France. It aims at developing the professional training system in accordance with global quality standards, as well as providing services and training solutions to develop human resources in conformity with current and future needs of companies and organizations.

■ ‘Abu-Ghazaleh University College for Innovation’ and Cambridge High Schools Sign Cooperation Agreements

AMMAN - Talal Abu-Ghazaleh University College for Innovation (TAGUCI) signed three cooperation agreements with Cambridge High Schools to serve the international schools community and to expand the benefits of the offered University College educational programs.

Cooperation with Cambridge High Schools represents TAGUCI’s keenness on building strategic partnerships at the local and international levels for the benefit of the school community including students, staff and parents.

TAGUCI offers various educational programs including Master’s degree in Business Administration (MBA), professional diplomas and training programs.

Furthermore, TAGUCI is committed to offer 50% scholarships in MBA, in the fields of Digital Marketing, Human Resources Management, Data Analytics, Innovative Leadership and Entrepreneurship, to those with ‘Very Good’ and ‘Good’ grades; and 60% scholarships to those with ‘Outstanding and Excellent’ grades in their Bachelor’s degree cumulative average grading system, in addition to a host of privileges and benefits to participants in training programs and professional diplomas.

The agreements were signed by TAGUCI Executive Director, Dr. Mushira A. Enezat, and Cambridge High School Principal, Dr. Wael Seitan.

Meanwhile, both parties expressed their pride in this cooperation that would serve their goals and aspirations.

■ For disseminating quality education services Abu-Ghazaleh Signs MoU with the Association of Arab Universities

AMMAN - A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) has just been signed by HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, chairman of the Arab Organization for Quality Assurance in Education (AROQA), and Dr. Amr Ezzat Salama, Secretary General of the Association of Arab Universities (AArU); to cooperate in disseminating the quality education activities, university accreditation and capacity-building services.

Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh expressed his pleasure for the cooperation agreement with the Association, pointing out that AROQA has updated its accreditation standards for educational institutions in accordance with the international standards, requirements of Digital Knowledge Revolution and scientific research; as well as for enhancing university students' professional capacities to become qualified teachers with digital learning skills.

Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh, chairman of the Arab States Research and Education Network (ASREN) --that works under the league of the League of the Arab States—further announced that ASREN, in collaboration with the European Union, has established a special Internet line for scientific research to assist researchers, academics and students' access to the global Research and Education (R&E) network, as well as to link the educational and research institutions with research centers around the world.

He also affirmed that Talal Abu-Ghazaleh

Global (TAG.Global) is ready to put all its resources and expertise at the service of the AArU, expressing his hope that the MoU will be a good starting point for a new era of cooperation in various activities between both parties.

For his part, Dr. Salama stated that the Association seeks through cooperation with AROQA to achieve its goals in promoting quality university education to face the current challenges the world is experiencing in the education sector, praising Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh's role and efforts in improving the quality of education in general with a special focus on the Arab region through 'AROQA' and other organizations and firms, His Excellency Dr. Abu Ghazaleh chairs at TAG.Global.

The MoU provides for cooperation in the field of quality services by organizing conferences, seminars and workshops. It also strives to elevate the educational level at the Arab universities to meet the international requirements, by holding various programs and training courses in order to disseminate quality culture and support their quality assurance centers; as well as by offering consulting services related to educational quality at Arab universities.

In the field of accreditation, the two parties agreed on collaborating to set up the accreditation standards of universities in the Arab countries that will be based on "innovation, creativity, utilization of technology in remote learning, digital learning, educational research, and quality of learning and education. That is in addition to jointly holding training courses, building capacities and other related fields.
